The Last Farewell

This is our last farewell to you
O, school of years past,
We hate this one goodbye to you,
For it will be our last.

The world waits at the door for us,
To greet us every one,
And fearlessly we'll follow it
For life has well begun.

Behind us we see happiness
In good old Macomb High,
Before us is the future,
You are ready; so am I.

MACOMB HIGH SCHOOL

FACULTY

BOARD OF EDUCATION

E. S. Slusher.....President

J. Otha Toland
Neil Chandler
Arthur Fleshman
Delmar Jewison

Will Lady
Geo. Needham
Truston Stewart, Jr.
Harold Sullivan

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1944.

You have remained at your school work in the face of temptations of high wages. In doing so you have shown a patriotism far greater than those who have quit school and gone to work.

"Every generation witnesses a race between ignorance, chaos and bondage on the one hand and enlightenment, high purpose, and freedom on the other." In order for freedom, high purpose and enlightenment to win, each succeeding generation needs to be more highly educated in our democratic way of life. More and more people must become imbued with the American spirit, the spirit of unselfish service for the common good.

P. F. SHAFER, Superintendent.

Miss Minnie Black is a graduate of Macomb High School. She attended Meyers Business College, Bryant-Stratton Business College in Chicago, and later did further work at Eureka College, Eureka, Illinois. She has been the efficient secretary of Macomb High's superintendent for eight years. She has traveled widely in the United States and hopes sometime to go abroad.

As another school year draws to a close we find more and more of our alumnae engaged in the great struggle which confronts our nation. They realize that the days they spent at Macomb High School have a value which cannot be measured in terms of dollars and cents, but in terms of life itself.

You, as students of Macomb High School, are not only acquiring information and skills, but are learning to make the basic social adjustments so necessary for a successful life. In doing a thorough job as students, you are doing your part as faithful citizens of Macomb.

By being loyal citizens of Macomb, you are contributing your share toward helping our country successfully meet the ordeal which is before it. By doing this you are playing a large part in helping the United States and its allies stamp out the fear, ignorance, and aggression which has beset them on every side.

The Custodians

Did you ever see a man and a mop coming down the hall on first floor at a brisk speed? Ten to one it was "Charley" Hainline. He is our number one man on that floor. Our number one man on floor number two is "Pete" Lerner. He keeps it as bright as an evening star. Last but far from least is our sub-zero man, Mr. Westerhold. It's his job to feed that hungry monster of a furnace all winter. He checks thermometers as carefully as a doctor. A great deal of credit must go to these men.

History of the Class of '44

Away back in the year of 1940, the graduating class of '44 was born to the proud parents, Macomb High School. From the very beginning this class showed signs of being a healthy, well-behaved group of boys and girls. The girls immediately started making places for themselves in the social world and the boys became star athletes.

By the time the class reached its third year it had diminished in size from one-hundred and twelve to seventy-seven.

The officers chosen to watch over the growth and welfare of the class were as follows: Jack Monger, President; Bob Pendell, Vice-President; Virginia Mullen, Secretary; Bill Gaffey, Treasurer.

The Junior Class presented "June Mad" to a filled auditorium in '42. It was a decided hit with everyone.

The Junior Prom was the outstanding feature of the year. The Juniors were in charge and the success of this gala affair added to their reputation of being capable managers. The ballroom was beautifully decorated and the girls in their colorful formals added much to the success for the evening.

The officers chosen to lead the Senior Class of '44 were as follows:

Bob Ring	President	Marilyn Dunsworth . . .	Secretary
Foster Smith	Vice-President	Virginia Mullen	Treasurer

The Senior Class didn't look much like the beginning Freshman Class. Many of the boys had gone to fight for their country. Among these are: Bill Gaffey, Air Service; Jim Harding, U. S. Navy; Bob Pendell, U. S. Marines; Irwin Foster, U. S. Navy; Bernard Lewis, U. S. Army; Marvin Elliott, Marines; Don Sweeney, Marines; Dean Ward, U. S. Army; Billy Cobb, U. S. Navy; Norman Heaton, Navy Seebee.

Our Senior Class has had two queens and kings chosen from it this year. Marilyn Dunsworth and Eugene Cathers reigned at Homecoming; Virginia Mullen and Jack Blevins reigned at the Valentine Dance.

Rita Arnold, a very friendly and outstanding leader in school, was chosen as the recipient of the D. A. R. award.

The Senior Class Play was a hit this year. It was the first mystery that has been produced in M. H. S. with a good record. It was presented to a large audience.

Our basketball team, composed of mostly seniors, conferred a great honor upon the school this year. They won first place in the County Tournament and presented M. H. S. with a beautiful trophy. . This was the first one since 1934.

A sad note was struck this year with the coming of the prom and its gay festivities. We suddenly realized that it was the last. Anyway the Juniors gave a wonderful evening to remember.

Commencement and Baccalaureate! How "grown up" we all felt in our caps and gowns. Yes, Macomb High School has a right to feel proud of the class of '44. The class has accomplished a great many things and as the individual members go out from the halls of M. H. S. into the business and social world, they will continue to do worthwhile things.

MISS MACOMB HIGH

MARILYN DUNSWORTH was chosen from the girls of the Senior class to represent us as "Miss Macomb High". She was elected by the student body on the basis of personality and popularity.

"She was a phantom of delight
When first she gleamed upon my sight
A lovely apparition, sent
To be a moment's ornament;
Her eyes as stars of twilight fair."

—William Wordsworth

MR. MACOMB HIGH

EUGENE CATHERS was chosen from the Senior class to receive the title, "Mr. Macomb High". The students gave him this honor because of his personality and popularity.

"He was happy and young, he was strong and sweet,
His body was hard to weary out. When he thought of life, he thought of a shout."

—S. U. Benet

Last Will and Testament of Class of 1944

We, the class of '44, of the city of Macomb, county of McDonough, and state of Illinois, being of lawful age, sound mind, and clear memory, and considering well the uncertainties of life, and being desirous of making such distributions of all our worldly effects among the persons we desire to receive the same, as to us seem equitable and just, do make, ordain, and publish this our last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills made by us.

We hereby appoint Vernadine Sweeney and Benny Martin of Macomb, Illinois, as executors of this our last will and testament.

Louise Akers: I do hereby will my nickname, "Fat-stuff", to someone who can carry it.

Jack Alexander: I will my popularity with the girls to Loren Van Hooser.

Rita Arnold: So that her winters will be more enjoyable, I leave my warm blooded nature to Marian Smith.

Robert Arnold: I will my work clothes to Roy Ackman.

Shirley Bailey: I will my dancing ability to Connie Farr.

Mary Ellen Bainter: to Norma Foster, I bequeath my winning smile.

Blondell Bland: I leave my cigarette lighter to Gaylord Hoke.

Jack Blevins: I leave my unmatched ability to play fast basketball to Reed Vincent.

Juanita Bly: I will my basket ball ability to Marilyn Tolley.

Agnes Burke: I leave my early morning wit to Jo-Ann Ruth.

Max Burnham: I regretfully will my powerful Mayflower (that's my '31 Chevrolet) and the out of town games to Benny Martin.

Eugene Cathers: I leave my beautiful (but missing) yellow scarf to Larry Stine.

Betty Carlile: I will my nice form to Jean Perkins.

Betty Carson: I leave my height to June Tolley.

Debbie Chandler: With utter regret I leave "Tondelayo" to "Bud" Mesick.

Mary Davidson: I will my ability to make baskets to Marilyn Lynn.

Jackie Davis: I hereby will and bequeath my ability of reckless driving to Stanley Stratton.

Jean Davis: I leave my beautiful black hair to Eva "Herkie" Robeson.

June Davis: I hereby will and bequeath my excess weight to Kathryn Cale.

Sterling Davis: I will my Ford to anyone who thinks he can keep it running.

Harriet Dixon: I will my tantalizing appeal for the boys to Sue Hemp.

Marilyn Dunsworth: I leave my name "Potty" to Reed Vincent.

Darlene Eddington: With regret, I leave my favorite subject, Trig., to Iris Van Hooser.

Cecil Freisner: I will my quietness to Marilyn Tolley.

Dorothy Grant: I leave my "bangs" to Bonnie Ashworth.

Betty Graves: I will my alarm clock to Bob McLean, so he will not be kicked out of school next fall.

Erma Jean Heaney: I leave my shortness to anyone who needs it.

Mary Heller: I hereby bequeath my studiousness to Joan Mason.

Theresa Hennessy: I leave my quiet manners to "Chris" Caroompas.

Cecil Hilton: I do hereby will my wave and mustache to "Lover" Sweeney.

Warren Irvin: I will my curly hair to anyone who would like to get rid of it as bad as I do.

Maratha Jennings: I will my height to Franklin Miller (although he doesn't need it).

Wayne Jennings: I leave my ability to play fast basketball to Russell Dietz.

Anna Lou Johnson: I leave my 4' 11½" to Eileen Booker.

Helen Jones: I leave my blond hair to Lorene Hainline.

Arnold Ketchum: I'll give up my job at Bowman's Shoe Store to Max Burnham.

Jean Little: To a fellow red head, Mary Lee Bainbridge, I leave my ability to win diamonds that count.

Harold Lynn: I want to leave my nickname, "Errol Flynn" to Marshall Watson.

Delbert Manard: I will my first period office work to Dorothy Dunsworth.

Mary Marlow: I leave my shyness to Bonnie Ashworth.

Barbara Martin: I will my hair and name "Pinky" to Barbara Campbell.

Jean McCants: I leave my bright blue eyes to Bill Mercer.

Virgil Miller: I will my affection for the teachers of M. H. S. to Kent Oglesby.

Virginia Mitchell: I leave my fifth hour study period to Bob Polite.

Jack Monger: I hereby will my "clever remarks" to little Ronald who works at Seegers.

Russell Morris: I leave my nickname "Cherry" to anyone who needs a good nickname.

Virginia Mullen: I regretfully leave my crown from the Valentine Dance to Jo-Ann Barton.

Audrey Nunn: My future trips to Indiana, I leave to Eileen Booker.

Doris Philson: I leave my fine art of jitterbugging to any future hepcat.

Keith Price: I will my job at Galloway's to Clarence Danner.

Helen Reed: I shall leave my quietness to "Red" Miller.

Bob Ring: I will my saxophone to anyone who can make it play without squeaking.

Lura Robeson: I gladly will my report cards to Lois Smith.

Rosie Sala: I leave my daily letters to Bowling Green, Kentucky, to anyone who wants the job.

Dick Smith: I will my long school days to Andy Baker.

Foster Smith: I leave my ability to get along with all women to Marshall Watson.

Donna Sticklen: Regretfully, I leave my wings to a future angel.

Barbara Stoneking: I will my stride to Patsy Baker.

Eldon Swigart: I will my nickname, "Coffee", to anyone who wants it.

Keith Thomson: I'll leave my height to Frankie Miller.

Virgil VeNard: I will my blond hair to, "Two-tone", Baldy Welch.

Robert Wetzel: I leave my work shoes to Bob Maxwell.

Joan Nester just quietly and regretfully leaves M. H. S.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hand this 26th day of May in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-four.

Bob Ring, President,
Marilyn Dunsworth, Secretary.

Class Prophecy

Once upon a midnight dreary, while I pondered weak and weary
Over many a forgotten lore of yore.
While I nodded, nearly napping, suddenly there came a tapping
As if someone gently rapping, rapping at my memory's door.
"Tis some old friend," I muttered, "tapping at my memory's door,
But those old friends are gone forever more, for . . .

Robert Arnold has grown greater,
He's made a new rat exterminator.
Darlene Eddington, bright and busy,
Has a job, shining lizzies.
And Dorothy Grandt, well I declare,
She's a hog caller at Lewistown fair.

Jackie and June Davis, relation 'tis said,
Are detectives out looking for bugs and beds.
A very bright boy is Keith Price,
He's discovered some harmless lice.
Donna Sticklen's eyes are cutting capers,
She's peeling onions for onion-skin paper.

Arnold Ketchum has taken up teaching,
He only did it in preference to preaching.
You remember the lovely Jean McCants.
She's now teaching cooties how to dance.
"Jap" Cathers, the famed debater,
Is now debating on "How to date 'er".

Harold Lynn owns a farm so large and complete
He specializes in pickled pigs' feet.
Now Marilyn Dunsworth, you remember the name,
Got hit on the head and has never been the same.
Ginny Mullen, always awfully shy and young,
Is worse off now, for she's lost a lung.

Foster Smith, who took the school by storm
Is now janitor in a girls' dorm.
A multi-millionaire is Helen Jones,
She made her fortune in ice-cream cones.
Wendell Mesick rather short and stout,
Labors in earnest when blondes are about.

Another bright boy is Russell Morris,
The only boy in a girls' chorus.
A fortune maker is Betty Graves,
She turned termites into slaves.
Theresa Hennessy and Cecil Freisner are B. P. U.'s
While Delbert Manard polishes church pews.

Barbara Martin's book, "Don't Wear Red,"
Was published after the poor girl was dead.
Barbara Stoneking, so meek and demure,
Is demonstrating a sure corn cure.
A winsome boy is Max Burnham,
He knows when and when not, to spurn 'em.
Ginny Mitchell, who so loved play directing,
Has turned her lofty ambitions to garbage collecting.
The industrious fellow, Bob Ring,
Is teaching gremlins to read, write, and sing.
Eldon Swigart, whom we called "Coffee,"
Has perfected a beautiful pink toffey.
The little but mighty, Juanita Bly,
Now flies a bomber through the sky.

Betty Carlile and Audrey Nunn are stenogs.
 Bradford Bland has discovered how to make frogs.
 Erma Jean Heaney is a farmerette fair.
 Wayne Jennings is in Iceland hunting bears.
 Mary Davidson is a burlesque dancer,
 Rosey Sala discovered a cure for cancer.
 You know what happened to Virgil VeNard,
 He's working for Swift's—rendering lard.
 Doris Philson, Shirley Bailey, Betty Carson, all three,
 Have just returned from over sea.
 Warren Irwin, great friend of the boys,
 Is busy making children's toys.
 Robert Ausbury, who lived on a farm,
 Is demonstrating the power of charm.
 The very witty Aggie Burke,
 Moved to Turkey and married a Turk.
 Jean Ann Davis, may her tribe increase,
 Drew up the plans for post-war peace.
 The very brilliant Mary Heller,
 Has written the world's best seller.
 Elizabeth Marlow, an inquisitive girl,
 Wants to know what makes pigs' tails curl.
 The farmer boy, Robert Wetzel,
 Has formulated a pickled pretzel.
 The always laughing Mary Ellen Bainter,
 Is now a famous chicken house painter.
 The Johnson girl, Anna Lou,
 Edited the book "What, and What Not To Do."
 You remember Jack Monger, the little dear,
 Now has ten little Mongers to rear.
 Keith Tompson, so sweet, tall, and stately,
 Got married and doesn't get around much lately.
 Jean Little, whose hair was very red,
 Now dyes it a bright purple instead.
 The very quiet Helen Reed
 Has discovered a new petunia seed.
 Louise Akers who was ever so smart,
 Died of complication of the heart.
 Debbie Chandler of philanthropic fame
 Has created a fund to keep Marines just the same.
 Cecil Hilton, now of New York,
 Has captured an honest to goodness stork.
 Harriet Dixon, a winsome lass,
 Has discovered a new fertilizer for grass.
 Virgil Miller, a poet of note,
 Has written an "Ode" dedicated to a goat.
 Richard Smith has a new wife.
 She really leads him a hen-pecked life.
 Rita Arnold, a full life has she had,
 Not even the gremlins can make her sad.
 Martha Jennings, a dreamer of dreams
 Says married life isn't as wonderful as it seems.
 Lura Robeson, a maker of joys
 Has just adopted six baby boys.
 The Blevins' boy, name of Jack,
 Has found out what makes up a "sad sack".
 Joan Nester, with a voice like a flute,
 Is now a cheerleader in a school for the mute.

Tiger House

By Robert St. Clair

The Senior Class Play of this year was very successful. It was a mystery comedy and the first time in many years for this type of play to be given.

The story evolved around the inheritance of an estate, Mystery Manor, by a young girl. Her aunt, who willed her the property, died an extremely violent death, which left a gloomy aspect upon the house.

A letter was found which told that a fortune in jewels was left by the aunt. The search for them and the events leading to the climax, such as swinging bookcases, sliding panels, and disappearing women, build an almost unbearable suspense. Comedy was provided in the character of Oswald, an insect collector; Aunt Sophia, maiden aunt who is always losing her teeth; and Peg, the flipant girl visitor.

The cast was:

Erma Lawrie.....	Joan Nester
Yami, a Hindu.....	Jim Harding
Aunt Sophia.....	Doris Philson
Mrs. Murdock.....	Rita Arnold
Mac Intosh.....	Keith Thomson
Arthur Hale.....	Foster Smith
Oswald Kerins.....	Max Burnham
Peggy Van Ess.....	Jean Little
Thompson.....	Delbert Manard
"The Mystery Woman".....	Virginia Mullen
The Tiger Man.....	? ? ? ?

The play was under the direction of Miss Doris Patrick. Those on the production staff and to whom a great deal of credit must go are as follows:

Assistant to director.....	Virginia Mitchell
Business Manager.....	Donna Sticklen and Jack Monger
Properties.....	Jean McCants
Lightning.....	Rosemary Sala
Special effects.....	Agnes Burke, Erma Jean Heaney, Virginia Mullen, Delbert Manard and Marilyn Dunsworth

Bashful Bachelor

Anne Weatherly

In the three act comedy, "A Bashful Bachelor," given by the Junior class, a bashful young author deserts New York for what he thinks is the solitude of a small town only to find that it is a girl's college town—just what he hopes to escape. The girls like him, but he doesn't like them. He finally falls in love with Molly but has a hard time gaining her affection.

The high-spot was in the third act when a burglar lines up five of the principal characters and attempts to steal the family pearls.

The cast was as follows:

Easter.....	Mary Kathryn Welch	Mr. Bixby.....	Dwayne Dorothy
Molly.....	Betty Haulk	Burglar.....	Roy Ackman
Viola.....	Lorine Hainline	First Policeman.....	Loren Van Hooser
Betty Jean.....	Juanita Little	Second Policeman.....	James De Rosa
Freddie.....	James Hare	Genevieve Carson
Mrs. Todd.....	Doris Louderman	Extra's.....	Joan Mason
Professor Todd.....	Max Standard	Carol Harland
Miss Abbott.....	Joan Ruth	Marjorie Marlow
Bertie.....	Benny Martin	Stage Managers.....	Don Sturm
David.....	Dick White	Larry Amerine
Miss Blythedale.....	Altene Kirkpatrick

This play was under the skilful direction of Miss Doris Patrick.

"We Dood It"

SEPTEMBER

- 1—Opening of school—what a day!
- 16—G. A. A. Freshman picnic.
- 17—A thrilling game with Carthage. Can you imagine—a tie 6-6?
- 24—We lost the football game to Monmouth 13-6. Oh, well.

OCTOBER

- 1—F. F. A. Jubilee—"They're our he-men."
- 2—Wonderful game with Jacksonville. 13-6. Naturally 'twas in our favor.
- 8—Band Supper.
- 9—Game with Lewistown. 18-0 win.
- 15—Homecoming! A huge bonfire in spite of rainy weather. Had a wonderful game with Beardstown, although we lost 7-6. A great big wonderful dance that night with Marilyn Dunsworth and Eugene Cathers reigning. Then a movie at the Lamoine Theater.
- 22—Great game at Havana. We won. 12-7. Exciting!

- 14—We beat Lewistown on their floor. 43-28.
- 15—G. A. A. party and do those girls ever have fun?
- 17—Colchester at Colchester. 29-26. Our favor.
- 20-31—Christmas Vacation. Everybody had a wonderful rest!
- 22—Guess what! That's right. Monmouth beat us 33-31.
- 28—You can look now, we beat Prairie City 43-33.

JANUARY

- 4—Here's that game with Academy and they beat 35-27. Oh, well.
- 7—Farmington sure beat us. 55-29.
- 12—Monmouth again in their favor, too. 40-29.
- 14—Gee, did we beat Havana, 46-33.
- 18-19-20-22—County Tournament. Macomb won first. Great thrill!
- 24—Exciting game at Beardstown. 37-29 our favor.
- 27—Boy, are we getting good. Won over Bushnell 40-23.

"We Dood It"

FEBRUARY

- 1—We're slipping again. Beardstown beat us 40-38.
- 3—Boy, are we good? Beat Academy 44-42.
- 8—We're back in the groove again. 40-33 win over Havana.
- 11—We're still in the groove. 59-43 win over Bushnell. Valentine Dance sponsored by G. A. A. Everybody wore red! Jack Blevins and Ginny Mullen, King and Queen while Joan Barton and Reed Vincent were Prince and Princess.
- 18—Game with Lewistown. 35-25 in our favor. City teachers institute. Wonderful day of rest.
- 22—We lost our grip again. Rushville beat us just one point. 34-33.
- 23-24—District Tournament.
- 25—Thespians sponsored formal dance. Everyone turned out in lovely clothes.
- 29—Regional Tournament.

MARCH

- 1-3—Regional Tournament.
- 9-10—Sectional Tournament.
- 16-17-18—State Tournament finals.
- 24-25—Sectional Speech Contest.
- 29—Pep Club party—more pep!
- 31—Junior Sub-Deb Leap-Year Dance. The girls really found the men!

- 23-27—Sectional baseball tournament.
- 28—Baccalaureate.

JUNE

- 2—Commencement. Bye, bye, everybody!

Macomb

My city is small and quiet,
A beautiful little place where nothing ever happens,
But where anything can happen.
It is not like St. Louis where the streets are crowded and the cars go whizzing by Picking up the war workers who build ships and make ammunition.
Here people lead just ordinary lives.
Everybody knows his neighbor's business,
But then no one cares too much,
For he too, knows the secrets of others.
They are just common folk who make up our town,
There are teachers, clerks, and bell hops,
There are welders, mechanics, and shine boys,
The kind of real folk that make up a nation.
And to me my city has a beauty I have yet to see elsewhere.
It is home to me—that makes it beautiful—
My Macomb.

Written by Miss Waggoner's class in American Literature.

Our Country at War

Our country is fighting this war to win
Though some people think the word war, means sin.
Just think of all the blood shed, torture, and tears
And of what the Japs have been plotting for years.
They have been scheming and sneaking, and dirty about it.
To bomb our free land while we live free upon it.
But we're paying them back great and small
By sinking their ships and destroying their planes one and all.
But to conquer and to defeat, all the deceitful Japs,
We must keep on buying bonds to back the attacks.
For this is America, a country great and strong,
And we must keep liberty as the years roll along.

Mary Lee Bainbridge

School Spirit

School spirit may be shown in many more ways than most students think.

Most of our Macomb High students have the impression that going to basketball games, school plays, and other activities are the only ways in which school spirit may be shown.

These are all fine, but there are other things just as important. When we're asked to do something and we make excuses, that is poor school spirit. If we do not try to get our assignments done, that is letting our teachers down.

What good does it do us to go to school if all we have time for is play? We might as well quit.

Think of the boys on the battle front today that have gone to Macomb High and all other high schools. They have no time to play. They want to work so that this war may be won soon.

If we learn and study, we are helping to win the war too. For, after this is all over, those that are in school now will be our future citizens and we most certainly do not want it to be an ignorant nation.

Let's help our principal, our teachers, and ourselves by supporting our school in every way and by showing the proper school spirit.

SALLY HOLSTINE

The Poet and His Words

The poet is a schoolmaster
Who rings his bell with words.
The poet sings his morning songs
As do the flitting birds.

The poet's words are reindeer
Darting swiftly past the trees.
The poet's words are autumn leaves
Flying with the breeze.

A poem is the beauty
Of the raindrops on the roof.
A poem is the rythm
Of the horses on the hoof.

So colorful the plummage
Of the flitting, flying birds,
So wonderful is nature,
So beautiful are words.

Virgil Miller

The Injustice of a Modern Fudge Sundae

In the old days, long before no gas, no tires, no shoes, no coffee, no meat, no marshmallows, no eggs, no cheese, and no-millions-of-other-things, people ate delicious fudge sundaes. It was no uncommon sight to see dozens of girls all smiling at one "soda jerker" just so they could taste the uncomparable flavor of such a rare delicacy.

Now all we may do is dream of what has been. Today, when we happen after years of searching to find a soda fountain, we usually know only too well that they have no ice cream, no chocolate, no whipped cream, no syrup, and no young soda jerker. But occasionally one does come upon a place advertising, in bold letters, FUDGE SUNDAES—50 cents (not the good old 15 cents).

You scrimp and save for days with the object of someday saving enough to bring your heart's desire, a fudge sundae.

At last that day comes. You walk proudly into the store and ask, in a loud voice, so all can hear, for one fudge sundae. Seeing the gleam in your eyes and the starved look on your face, the poor decrepid excuse for a soda jerker smiles at you with pity. He then draws forth what is commonly known as a doll dish. Into this vast expanse he drops not quite one teaspoonful of ice cream and grudgingly places over it three drops of runny, thin, pale, undernourished, fudge. That I must sadly relate, is what the modern fudge sundae consists of.

Yes, grandchildren, there was a day when such things were not so. I can remember when your grandfather worked for days and then truly discovered this fine art. I was one of his most ardent admirers (only because of his fudge sundaes, of course). Ah, just the memory strikes a pang in my stomach. A fudge sundae in those days was served in a huge container known only to soda fountains of that time. In this dish were placed two huge dippers of ice cream. This was covered with, not a slight hint mind you, but covered, with rich, creamy, fudge. On top of this was a huge portion of whipped cream, and thereon was placed an enormous red, ripe, delicious cherry. A beautiful sight.

"Star Spangled Banner"

'Oh, say can you see'
That flag ever shining?
The flag that wakes people
See the clouds' silver lining?
'By the dawns early light'
Every morning we know
We'll fight for this country
That we all love so.
'What so proudly we hail'
With our hearts every day
We look up, we are glad,
And go happy away.
'In the twilights last gleaming'
Near God's country, it seems
The rays of his love
On that great flag beams.
Whose broad stripes and bright stars'
Seem ever to shine
Upon all of her people
Benevolent and kind.
'Through the perilous night'
It guards over us all.
This flag will keep watching!
We shan't let her fall!
'O'er the ramparts we watch'
Yes, we must watch, too.
Because it's of us
That our flags' country grew.
'Were so gallantly gleaming,
Oh! That flag it does shine!
What a wonderful feeling
To know that it's mine.
'And the rockets red glare'
Many we've seen
But still we behold
Our flag's glorious cheer.
The bombs bursting in air'
They tried them, too
But still that flag waves
Because maybe of you.
'Gave proof through the night'
Yes, in night she does fly.
Guarding, protecting
On ocean, in sky.
'That our flag was still there'
It shines always above
Over our free heads
The flag that we love.
'Oh, say does that star spangled banner yet wave'
Thank God that she does!
And may she wave always
Over those that she loves.
'O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave'
That's our flag, that's her people, that's us keeping her high,
And pray now to God
She won't ever die.

Vacation

Two more months and sixteen days and they're going to turn us loose. Then the doors will be swung wide. Our diplomas will be given and we will go out these doors free to do just as we like. Just as we did twelve years ago before these great doors closed upon us and we became prisoners under the command of the teacher.

For good behaviour each year we were granted a three months parole, but with enforcement officers to see that we came back to our prison. As the year went by and our yearly paroles were given, some went A.W.O.L. never returning. Now, as our term draws near its end we can begin to make plans for our vacation. Some will choose a profession that will lead them back to another state institution for a four year term. Others will remain free until their dying day.

Yes, two more months and sixteen days and these doors will close behind us forever. Never again will we have to trudge to school rain or shine. Never again will we have to hurry to school to avoid a week at hard labor for the misdemeanor of being late to classes four times.

We will be able to swim and relax doing as we please never worrying about Shakespeare or Keats. Vacation, you are super!

Drink Ovaltine—Postum and sleep peacefully. This you hear everyday. I've tried everything from hot water to hot air and—

I lay awake at nights counting sheep, cows, birds, pigs, ration stamps, tokens, Democrats, Republicans, and four leaf clovers. Then I give up and—

I begin to argue with myself. Yes! Maybe! No maybe about it! W-e-l-l! Yes! No—definitely no! Yes! No! Yes! No! Hey! What am I arguing about? I shall never get to sleep this way. My mind begins to drift and—

I think over what has happened during the day. I lost my gum 'cause it dropped out of my mouth (I was so sleepy) and landed with a final "plop" on the floor. Ho! Hum! I'm not sleepy at all. Wouldn't it be wonderful—

If I had a steak, french fries, or even a hamburger. I just know I could sleep. My! I'm so hungry for pie, too. I'm sure I saw some in the cupboard. The idea startles me and my stomach starts yelling: "Food! Food! You gotta feed me!" and—

I wander down to the kitchen, fry a hamburger, eat a piece of pie, drink a glass of milk, and toddle back to bed. I feel very sleepy. I get snuggled up in bed, and suddenly there are large luminous letters blinking at me "YOU ARE NOT ASLEEP!!!" I'm not. I'm the most wide awake person in this world. I lie there thinking about nothing when—

Boom! I'm asleep. Getting to sleep on no-thing. Must try it again.

Submerged in sleep I begin to dream. I must dream of nothing but birds and being a bird I must sing. I sing and sing and sing. Clark Gable walks in on the scene (I told you I was dreaming) and tells me very politely to shut up! I think this is very funny. I laugh and laugh. Then I begin to run for some uncalled reason and then begin to fly. I happened to remember I was a bird. I'm having quite a time when—

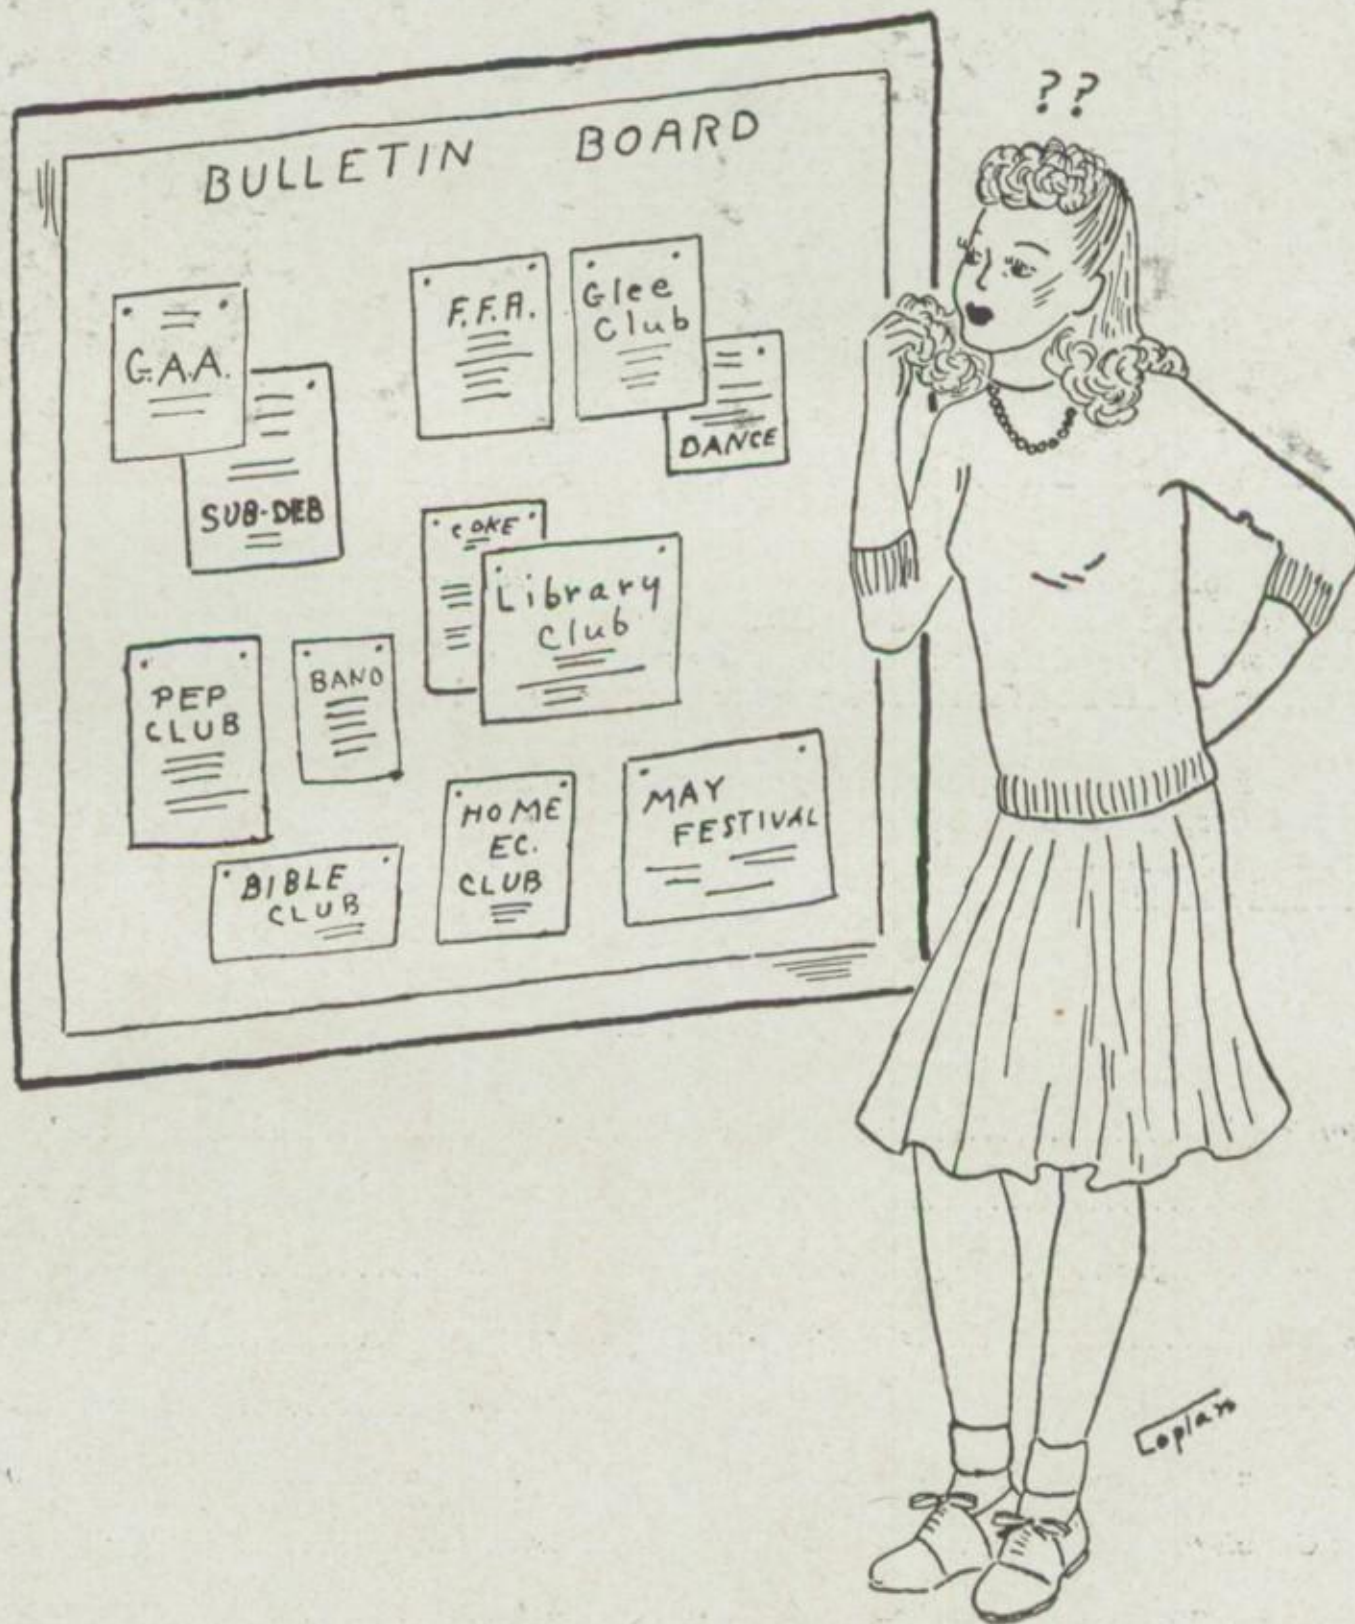

I wake up. My covers are twisted around me and I wonder if I shall ever get out because I'm so tired so very tired when—

Mother calls me. It is time to get up. I drift off into sweet slumber.

ACTIVITIES

Spider Web Staff

The Spider Web Staff of '44 worked under very discouraging conditions due to the war and scarcity of materials. However, with the undaunted courage and enthusiasm of the staff and the helpful assistance of Miss Finnell, they succeeded in making a year book which they hope every one will treasure.

The financing of the annual depends upon the business manager and her helpers. The sources, other than the local merchants advertising in the annual, is the class play, activity ticket fund, subscription fees, and the returns from the coca cola machine and candy sales.

The second year of the Future Farmers of America Organization has been one of continued and varied activity. Each of the committees has been responsible for one or more night meetings. In addition each committee has carried out from four to a dozen activities for the group or individual members.

In carrying out the activities the boys earned and spent about two hundred dollars. Much of this was used for the purchase of awards for good work in various parts of the F. F. A. program.

The Macomb F. F. A. won several honors in the section contest. They won second in this section in the program of work contest. They entered the report of their program accomplished in the sectional contest at Urbana, Illinois, and won first in the section which is composed of twenty schools. They were accredited an outstanding chapter for their accomplishments in the club.

The grain judging team won third at the section contest. The oration winner from this Chapter, Fred Thomson, also won first in the section, and he competed in the state contest.

Robert Wetzel was chosen State Farmer at the convention in Urbana.

George Dean and Jack Cheeseman were the delegates to the state convention, and Bob Mustain was the alternate.

The following boys have entered the armed services: Dean Ward, Bernard Lewis and Jim Harding.

Those who have the highest scholarship in the chapter this year are as follows:

George Dean Jack Provine Edward Ausbury Robert Ausbury

The Bible Club had Mr. Smart for its sponsor. The club meets every Tuesday afternoon in Mr. Smart's room. For activity a different member takes charge of each meeting. Outside speakers and Bible quizzes are the main features. A party, sponsored by the club, is held at a member's home once every six weeks. The Bible Club is maintained to promote interest in and knowledge of the Bible.

Band

Mr. Anton Johnson, the representative from the fourteenth Congressional district of Illinois, and Mr. Alex J. Fish, the assistant field director of the Red Cross at Camp Ellis, were responsible for the beginning of the Macomb High School Band.

Mr. Franklin Bunnell was asked in 1933 to direct the Macomb High School Band. He accepted, and until March of this year has been the only director the band has ever known.

Mr Merrill Bone is the present director and is converting it into a symphonic band.

When the band was first started, it included around twenty-five pieces, and it now consists of fifty, and more are being added.

The purpose of the band has been to help spread cheer and excitement at football games. The annual mass band meeting was held this year as in previous years, and band concerts every summer have furnished music in Chandler Park.

The present officers of the band are as follows: President, Robert Ring; Vice-president, LeRoy Ackmann; Secretary-treasurer, Marilyn Tolley.

The M. H. S. Pep Club was organized in 1941 by the cheerleaders with its membership selected by invitations to thirty-two students. There is no limited membership now, and the club roll has grown to fifty-six.

The group prides itself on good sportsmanship and enthusiastic cheering at all games. A part of their regular program is the introduction of new yells to the student body, planning of pep assemblies, and play nights for the teams.

SPORTS

Football '43

The Macomb Bombers opened their football season of 1943 with a home game against Carthage High. A 6-6 deadlock resulted at the close of a hard fought game. For the first game of the season the Orange and Black showed up well. Macomb's next opponent was Monmouth, who went home with the better end of a 13-6 score.

The first victim of Macomb's aerial strategy was Jacksonville who were turned back 13-6. Opening the Spoon River Valley Confernece schedule, Macomb rolled over Lewistown 18-0. The Home Coming game with Beardstown proved to be a disappointing defeat as Macomb was beaten 7-6. Next on the Bomber's schedule was a game with Havana Ducks on their field. Even though it was a night game, the Ducks were shot down 12-7. Rushville was the next stumbling block for the Orange and Black as they were dropped by the score of 19-0. In this game, Hoke, Macomb right end suffered a broken ankle. Closing their season, the Bombers nosed out a stubborn Bushnell squad by 7-6.

Macomb lost its star halfback, Jack Blevins, early in the season with a twisted knee. He played two good games after the injury.

Co-Captain Eugene "Jap" Cathers received a berth on the third team in the All-State poll.

The scores for the season were:

Macomb 64 Carthage 6	Macomb 6 Beardstown 7
Macomb 6 Monmouth 13	Macomb 12 Havana 7
Macomb 13 Jacksonville 6	Macomb 0 Rushville 19
Macomb 18 Lewistown 0	Macomb 7: Bushnell 6

Basketball

The Orange and Black Bombers completed their schedule with great success considering the various handicaps. Although our cagers didn't finish on top in the Spoon River Valley Conference, they were in the game at all times. Most of the scores were close and they never lost any game by a large score.

The Bombers had a short streak of bad luck at first but came out of it to beat Prairie City and win the County Tournament. This was the first time in seven years for Macomb High to win this tournament.

Although they lost the first game with the Academy, the Bombers redeemed themselves by winning the second by two points.

The Bombers starting line-up was usually:

Foster Smith	Center
Eugene Cathers	Right Forward
Bill Mercer	Left Forward
Jack Blevins	Right Guard
Wayne Jennings	Left Guard

High point honors this year go to Foster Smith with a total of 201 points. Eugene Cathers was next in line with 191 points.

G. A. A.

Physical fitness, sportsmanship, and fellowship make up the code of the Girls' Athletic Association. This club is open to any girl in school who wishes to participate.

Heading the club through this year's activities were:

President	Rosemary Sala	Secretary	Joan Mason
Vice-President	Virginia Mullen	Treasurer	Darlos Coplan
Advisor	Marian E. Smith

Each year the sports are started off with the intra-mural softball tournament which was managed by Mary Davidson and won by the Seniors.

This was followed by the volleyball tournament, managed by Mary Welch and won by the Juniors. The last sport of the year was basketball which was under the leadership of Joan Nester and won by the senior team whose captain was Virginia Mullen. Many girls on this senior team have played together for the past four years. They tied for first place in their Sophomore year and won in their Junior and Senior years. At the end of the season, eighteen girls were entered in the state basket shooting tournament. For the first time in Macomb High's history, the G. A. A. won first place in the district and were awarded a state banner.

The club not only includes sports in its program but has many outstanding social activities. The first of the year a weiner roast for the freshman girls was given. Thirty-five girls were initiated into the organization in March. The G. A. A. sponsored the Homecoming dance, bonfire, and entertainment between halves. The entertainment this year was mass cheer-leading led by the four cheer leaders. In February the annual Valentine dance was sponsored by G. A. A. The final big event of the year was the May Festival where attention focused on the crowning of the king and queen and their attendants. The boys choose the girls and the girls the boys on the basis of personality.

G. A. A.

At the end of the year a small gold G. A. A. pin is awarded to one girl out of each class who has been outstanding in sportsmanship, a member in good standing, and one who participated in all club activities. A girl can receive a class pin only once. A gold trophy cup is awarded to the most outstanding senior girl who has been in G. A. A. four years, and who has the above qualifications.

The 1944 winners are:

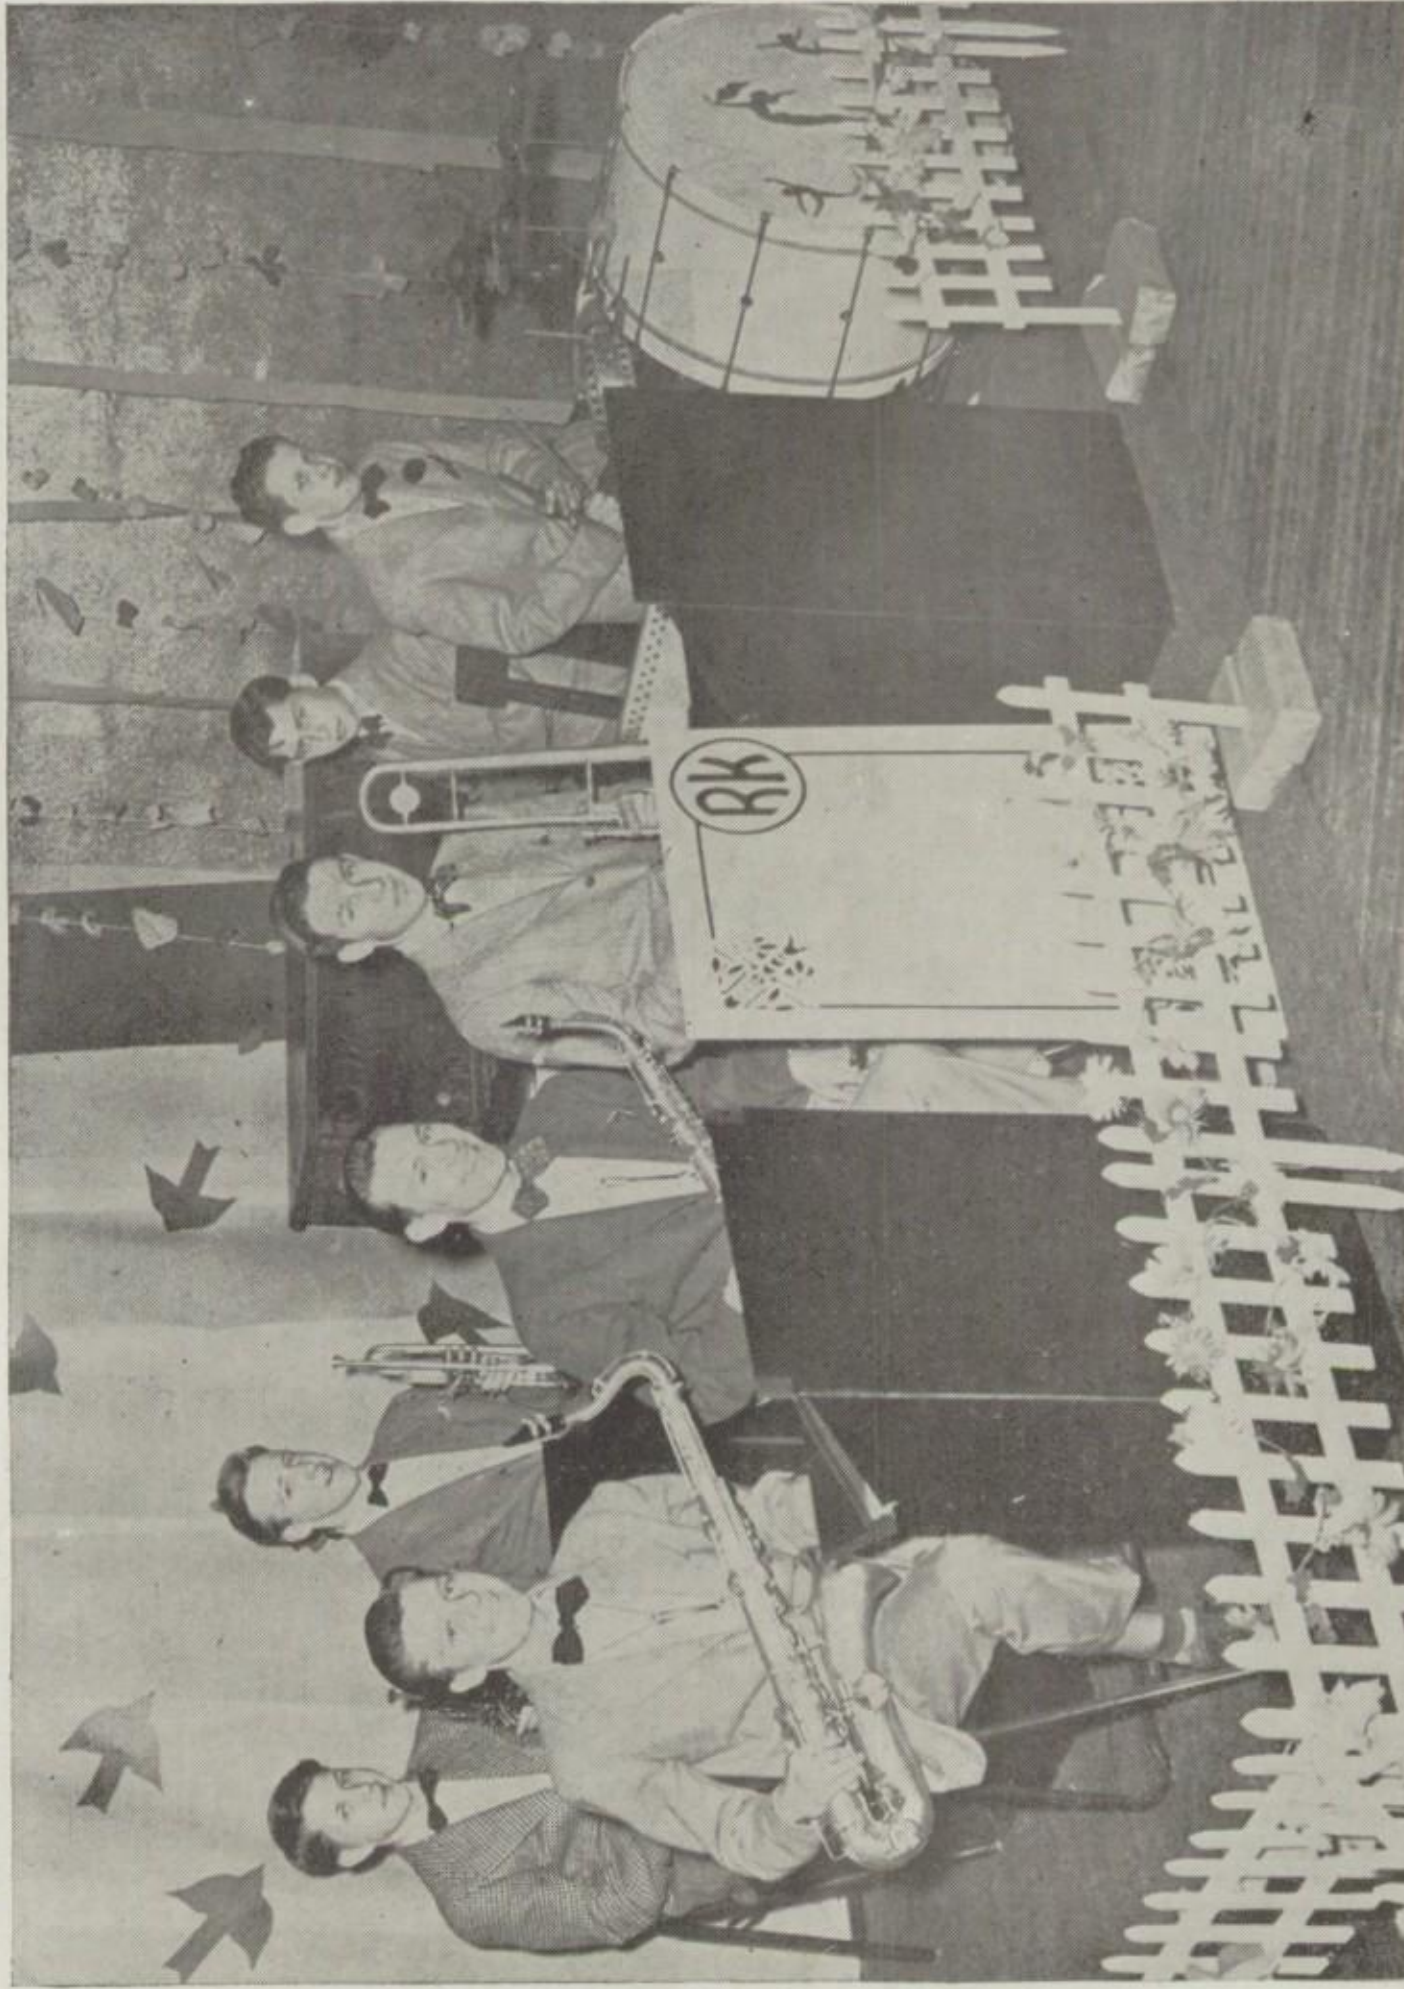

G. A. A. Championship Cup	Rita Arnold
Senior Class Champion	Virginia Mullen
Junior Class Champion	Betty Haulk
Sophomore Class Champion	Iris Van Hooser
Freshman Class Champion	Dorothy White

During the first three years of their high school career, these seniors received pins: Rita Arnold, Rosemary Sala, Doris Philson.

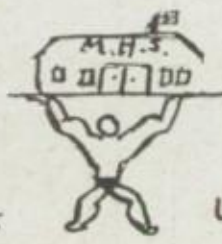

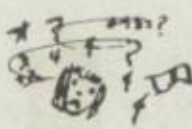

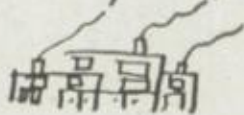

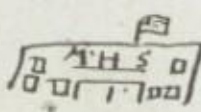

This year Rosemary Sala, Rita Arnold, Virginia Mullen, Joan Nester, Doris Philson, Shirley Bailey, Debbie Chandler, Donna Sticklen, Mary Davidson, Anna Lou Johnson, Audrey Nunn, Juanita Bly, and Betty Carson received the highest state award that is given to girls who have earned 2000 points and have been members for four years. A chenille "I" is awarded to Juniors who have earned 1600 points and sophomores receive an "M" for 1200 points. Freshmen may wear class numerals after earning 600 points.

The organization pays the expenses of its president and one other representative to the G. A. A. leadership camp.
